Excerpt: . compliances with evil courses, or have kept their integrity without swerving; yet it shall be the wisdom of all within the land, to guard their hearts by prayer and supplication, and to arm themselves with the strength of the Lord against defection. Experience hath proven throughout all the tract of the work of God, that many hath fallen off from day to day, and that new trials have produced new discoveries of the hollowness of the hearts of some, concerning whom many did promise to themselves better things. None can be stedfast in the covenant but these whose hearts are right with God. We wish, therefore, every man to search and try his ways, and as to repent of all his former provocations, so, in the strength of the Mediator, Jesus Christ, to study to walk with God, and to order his conversation aright; then may we be confident that the Lord shall establish us, and that no weapon that is formed against us shall prosper, and that every tongue that riseth against us in judgment we shall condemn. A. Ker. No. XXI. Edinburgh, January 24, 1650. A Declaration of the Committee of Estates of the Parliament of Scotland, in vindication of their proceedings from the aspersions of a scandalous Pamphlet, published by that excommunicate Traitor, James Graham, under the title of A Declaration of James Marquis of Montrose. It may seem strange to such as know the state of af. fairs in...
