Into the Bay of Mobile: By the United States Steam Sloop Oneida, Commander Geo; Henry Preble, U. S. N. September 4, 1862 Sir, - I regret having to inform you that a three master screw steamer, bearing an English red ensign and pennant, and carrying four quarter boats and a battery of six or eight broadside guns and one or two pivots, and having every appearance of an English man-of-war, ran the blockade this afternoon under the following circumstances: I had sent the Winona to the westward to speak a schooner standing in under sail, when the smoke of a steamer was discovered bearing about south-east, and standing directly for us. Observing that she was burning black smoke, I immediately got the Oneida under way and stood toward her, signalling to the Winona to chase at discretion. We soon neared the stranger in company with the Winona, who, as we approached him, gradually hauled to the northward and westward....
