Edward Dean Rand; A Memorial Address by Albert S. Batchellor, Before the Grafton and Coos Bar Association, at the Annual Meeting Held at Lancaster, Jan, 29, 1886 Since the formation of this Association four of our brethren at the Bar have gone out from the fellowship of earth. They had all been men of mark, and successful in various lines of professional action. Each of them - Burrows, Duncan, Burns, and Rand - had developed a personality worthy of commemoration. Appropriate memorials of the life work of three of these, our former associates, have been inscribed for your archives by worthy hands. It is fitting that we cease for a time from the perplexing problems and the absorbing contentions of our calling, and consider the lessons to be drawn from the lives of the strong men who have fallen, after gaining many goals that seem beyond our reach. Among the eminent men in the profession of the law, and indeed among the conspicuous followers of other callings, the leaders of the Bar in northern...
