Not illustrated. 1915 Excerpt: .the official class towards our missionaries and their work. Along with the advantages accruing from this state of things there will also be some difficult problems to be solved. + + + + Dr. Jas. B. Woods writes: The new hospital is full to overflowing on the men s side and is filling rapidly on the women s side. It is convenient and a great help. The Chinese are much pleased with, it and with its appearance. I am training my assistants in regular scientific hospital work, and also in some aggressive Christian work. Our hospital chapel is attractive and will be as a teaching as well as a preaching place. Dr. Woods is greatly in need of a trained nurse for his work in the hospital, and if some one would apply for the position we would make extraordinary efforts to provide the means for sending her out. - aa -a A card from Rev. Plumer Smith, dated December 29, states that he has finished his visit to the London Hospital, having made a satisfactory recovery, and was expecting to sail for the Congo in about two weeks from that date. We trust that he will meet with no disagreeable adventures by the way and that we may soon hear of him as safely landed at Luebo. + + 4+ We suspect that, in the matter of pastoral visiting, Rev. B. C. Patterson, D. D., of Sutsien, China, holds the record of all the ministers...
