Orrin G. Hatch (chairman of the committee) presiding. Also present: Senators Grassley, Specter, Thompson, Kyl, Abraham, Biden, Kennedy, Leahy, and Heflin. Opening Statement of Hon. Orrin G. Hatch, A U.S. Senator from the State of Utah. The Chairman. I apologize to everybody here. The Judiciary Committee had to have a special executive session and it took us a little while off the floor after the last vote and it was a controversial session and it just took us longer than we thought it would take. So I apologize to everybody concerned because this is a very, very important hearing to all of us. This morning, the Judiciary Committee will hear testimony concerning a very disturbing series of church burnings, many of which involve identifiably black churches. The role of black churches in the black community and in American history cannot be overstated, nor can it be succinctly described. Not only houses of God tending to the spiritual and cultural needs of their parishioners, not only refuges from oppression and indignity in the wider society through the centuries, black churches were often, in the words of Rev. Jesse Jackson, railroad station[s] and so often the pastor was the conductor, in the underground railroad for slaves escaping bondage. More recently, black churches served as command centers and outposts in a great movement...
