Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Expansion the History and Heredity of Our Race Mountains on the west, and no other nation disputed her sovereignty or her possession. But the spirit of expansion, the thirst of enterprise, and the love of adventure that have animated our race from the dawn of its history, and that first brought our ancestors from the Baltic Sea to Denmark, Norway, and Sweden, then to the north of France, then from those regions to England, and then from England to America, where they laid the foundations of their final empire, were still inspiring the hearts, energizing the intellects, and propelling the footsteps of our ancestors. To roam, to explore, to occupy, and to build was their nature. The Almighty had made them so. This decree He had written in their souls, and it was a part of their very life. Hitherto this new and vigorous and wonderful race had crossed seas and bays and oceans, but had never yet crossed mountains. The Alleghenies barred their way to the West. On the other side was the yet unconquered red man. On the other side was the sovereignty of the great Kingdom of France. On the other side were boundless forests, unexplored wildernesses, unnavigated rivers, and unmeasured prairies. These formidable obstacles, obstacles that heretofore in the history of the world had been sufficient to divide people from people, race from race, and nation from nation, were no obstacles at all to the descendants of those mighty adventurers that had breasted the tempests and buffeted the billows in order to lay the foundations of their future empire on the continent of North America. Washington The First American Leader Of...
