The Forefathers of Mahomet, and History of Mecca, from the middle of the Fifth Century to the Birth of Mahomet, 570 A.D. Cossai, ruler In the fourth section of the foregoing chapter I have endeavoured to give a connected view of the progress of events at century. Mecca, from the most remote times to the middle of the fifth century. About that period we left Cossai in the possession of all the important dignities of the city, religious and political, cwn polity The social institutions of Mecca did not essentially differ from hXits of the those of the wandering Bedouins. They were to some extent Bedoums. m0dified by the requirements of a settled habitation, and the peculiarities of the pilgrimage and local superstition. But the ultimate sanctions of society, and the springs of political movement, were in reality the same...
