ROOTS AND ROUTES: KARRETJIE PEOPLE OF THE GREAT KAROO: MARGINALISATION OF A SOUTH AFRICAN FIRST PEOPLE (PAPERBACK)

Unisa Press, South Africa, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 277 x 234 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The lives of a previously invisible and forgotten first people of South Africa come to the fore in this carefully researched study. The Karretjie People (Donkey Cart People) of the Great Karoo are direct descendants of the /Xam (San/Bushmen), who were the earliest inhabitants of much of the Karoo interior. Today, as itinerant sheep-shearers, the Karretjie People roam the arid expanses of the Karoo in their donkey carts in search of a possible shearing opportunity, sleeping over on the roadside in their make-shift overnight shelters. This unique study is the result of several decades of original research into the lives and community of these gypsy-like wanderers, and highlights the plight of this marginalised South African community, poorest of the poor . The ingenious adaptation of the Karretjie People to particularly trying circumstances and their challenging environment is illustrated by their unique way of life. In a reader-friendly narrative Mike de Jongh not only makes the story of the Karretjie People accessible to the general reader, but offers a deeper insight into the early history and environment of the Great Karoo. At the same time, students of human and social sciences will find material in the study appropriate to methodological and theoretical issues in this subject area. Besides offering a colourful portrait of a community neglected by both government and NGO agencies, this book contains rich sociological data, which should bear important implications for policy-makers in the spheres of education and development as well as in the domain of political decisions.
