Excerpt: .is the memorandum, Exhibit H, signed by the testator, by which he recommends that 100,000 be given to the Northwestern Univei sity (Case, fols. 1160-1166; Opinion of General Term, Case, fols. 4357-4358). As to this devise and bequest to the residuary legatees Bulkley and Bitch, the testator said in the private memorandum signed by him December 11, 1884: I have made Messrs. Bulkley and Bitch my residuary legatees, in the confidence that thereby my inten tions as expressed in my will shall be carried into effect (Case, fol. 1149). The Private Memorandum of March 22d, 1889, Exhibit H, was a further expression of his intentions with regard to the disposal of the residuaiy estate which he had given to the residuary legatees, and which they had accepted, on the understanding that they would carry out those intentions. As evidence of this, Mr. Ritch wrote...
