

Love, Greg Lauren (Paperback)

By Greg Manning

Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Revised edition. 226 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Early on the morning of September 11, 2001, Lauren Manning—a wife, the mother of a ten-month-old son, and a senior vice president and partner at Cantor Fitzgerald—came to work, as always, at One World Trade Center. As she stepped into the lobby, a fireball exploded from the elevator shaft, and in that split second her life was changed forever. Lauren was burned over 82.5 percent of her body. As he watched his wife lie in a drug-induced coma in the ICU of the Burn Center at New York-Presbyterian Hospital, Greg Manning began writing a daily journal. In the form of e-mails to family, friends, and colleagues, he recorded Lauren's harrowing struggle—and his own tormented efforts to make sense of an act that defies all understanding. This book is that e-mail diary: detailed, intimate, inspiring messages that end, always, as if a prayer for a happy outcome: LOVE, GREG LAUREN We share this story day by astonishing day. Greg writes of the intricate surgeries, the painful therapies, and the constant risk of infection Lauren endured...

I just began reading this pdf. It is actually writter in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
