R. 3881 is not the solution to Colorados water problem but it is an important first step toward finding the 173, 000 acre-feet the state will need in the next 40 years. Through intelligent use of existing resources, the process outlined in H. R. 3881 will provide for the storage of 48, 000 acre-feet of non - Project water. That is water available under existing water rights held by cities and towns within the Districts nine-country service area. Further, it will do this while continuing to honor the Districts existing obligations under the 1962 authorizing legislation and interstate compacts. As with any western water issue, this is something of a work in progress. Its present form came about, not only from the PSOP process, by as the result of lengthy negotiations this year between the District and the City of Aurora and...
