

Remedy: Inspired by Life Experience (Paperback)

By E R Sanchez

Fried Potato Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Remedy is a novel about a life author E. R. Sanchez has become tangentially familiar with. His book tells the tale of an everyman, a hardworking, American man who does everything right but still finds himself on the wrong side of fate. Philip McCalister is that man. In Remedy, McCalister is the reverse hero who is dishonorably discharged from the glory of his previous life-the life he wrought with his bare hands. Sanchez s book is about a man who is in the grips of a dramatic tragedy. As he sees his life fall apart, his business and his family destroyed, and he is left with few options: to belly up and accept defeat, to bury himself alive-to live the life of a vanquished warrior in disgrace. . . . But he does not accept these options. He counters defeat by whatever means he can. Wouldn t you? Remedy begins with McCalister and his attorney heading toward the entrance of the Los Angeles Superior Courthouse in Van Nuys, California. The walk up the steps is an...
